Subject: New Year's Day at Carsington and Hognaston.

People:

Joseph, Rahel and Clifford. A cold and frosty New Year's morning. Joseph is only three months old. We head out to the Red Lion at Hognaston where there is a meeting of the Ripley Morris Men, an event that either my Dad or Royston must have told me about. After the Morris dancing we went for a walk around Carsington Water, which I could have sworn was in Shropshire but Google assures me is still Derbyshire.

Dates:

Times and dates are taken from the EXIF metadata. The chronology has been checked and I believe it to be accurate.
